

Terms & Conditions

- The Bank's approval is an initial approval subject that the customer would provide the entire relevant original documents & subject to other verification checks, including the application request for the loan and the bank shall have the right to reject the request in case of not fulfilling all the required documents for the card
- The customer authorises the bank to disclose all/ or part of his data or his transactions to Barclays group or any other third party including Central Bank of Egypt and Credit information companies (I-Score) as it may required for the business or needed to provide the services